BIBLIOGRAPHY 2009-2021

Preface

This bibliography complements the previous two editions for the years 1948-1998 and 1999-2008, both of which are available via the Friends of the Centre for English Local History website (<https://www.englishlocalhistory.org/wp/>). The format and indexing remain the same. Its aim is to capture all relevant academic works published by authors connected with the Centre. It is hoped that readers will find this volume a useful reference work. If any errors or omissions are noticed, please get in touch with the Friends of the Centre for English Local History at bibliography@englishlocalhistory.org, so that these can be corrected and included within any future revised version.
